EXTERIOR

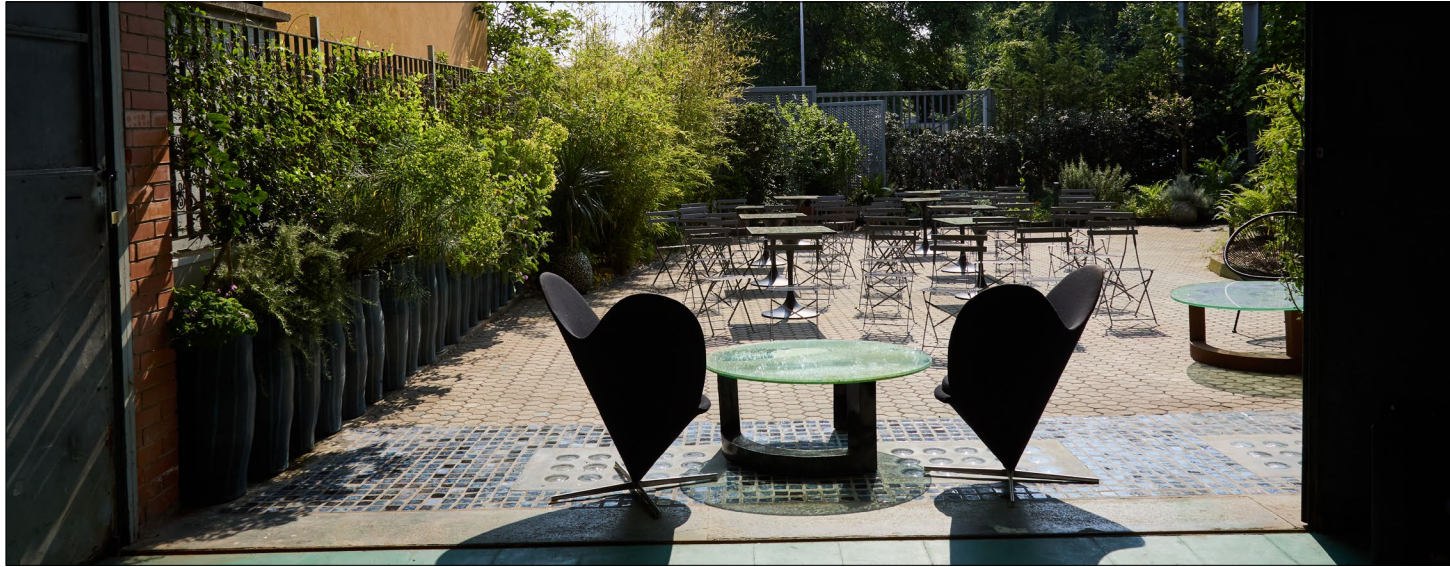

Fondazione Sozzani è immersa nel verde, circondata da erbe aromatiche, viti e spazi naturali che dialogano con l'architettura industriale del luogo.

Il giardino e le coltivazioni contribuiscono a definire la visione della Fondazione come luogo dedicato alla crescita, alla condivisione e allo sviluppo di nuovi linguaggi contemporanei.

Fondazione Sozzani is surrounded by greenery, with aromatic herbs, grape vines, and natural spaces that interact with the industrial architecture of the site.

The presence of the garden and cultivated areas helps shape a distinctive atmosphere in which nature and culture coexist, reinforcing the Foundation's vision as a space dedicated to growth, exchange, and the development of new contemporary languages.
